As the 1994 school year comes to a close, we hope that each and every student walks out with the confidence and knowledge they need to succeed in their everyday life. As the editors we hope that this book successfully represents the goals and achievements made by the class of 1994. In years to come, may you look back on this Journal and remember the strong bonds that were made between friends and faculty. Bonds that can not be forgotten, nor destroyed. We hope that this Journal will depict memories for all as we embark in a look through the Eyes of the Tiger.

Best of luck in future endeavors,

Robin Sousa, Kyla Ashcroft, and Kenneth Buttermore D E D

We the class of 1994 would like to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere best wishes to Mr. John Silva who has given 34 years of his life to the students of Taunton High School. We will miss the genuine support and thoughtfulness he has shown us over the past four years. It is with these thoughts in mind that we wish Mr. Silva and his family health and happiness, and feel that it is only fitting that in his last year of service dedicate this Journal to him.

The Class of 1994

Risin' up, back on the street, Did my time, took my changes. Went the distance, now I'm back on my feet, Just a man and his will to survive.

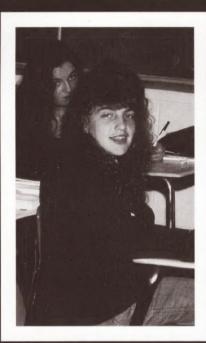

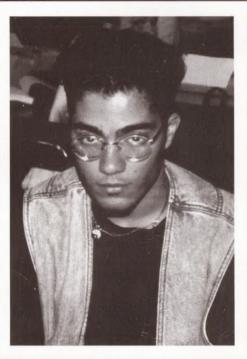

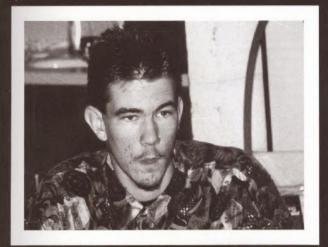

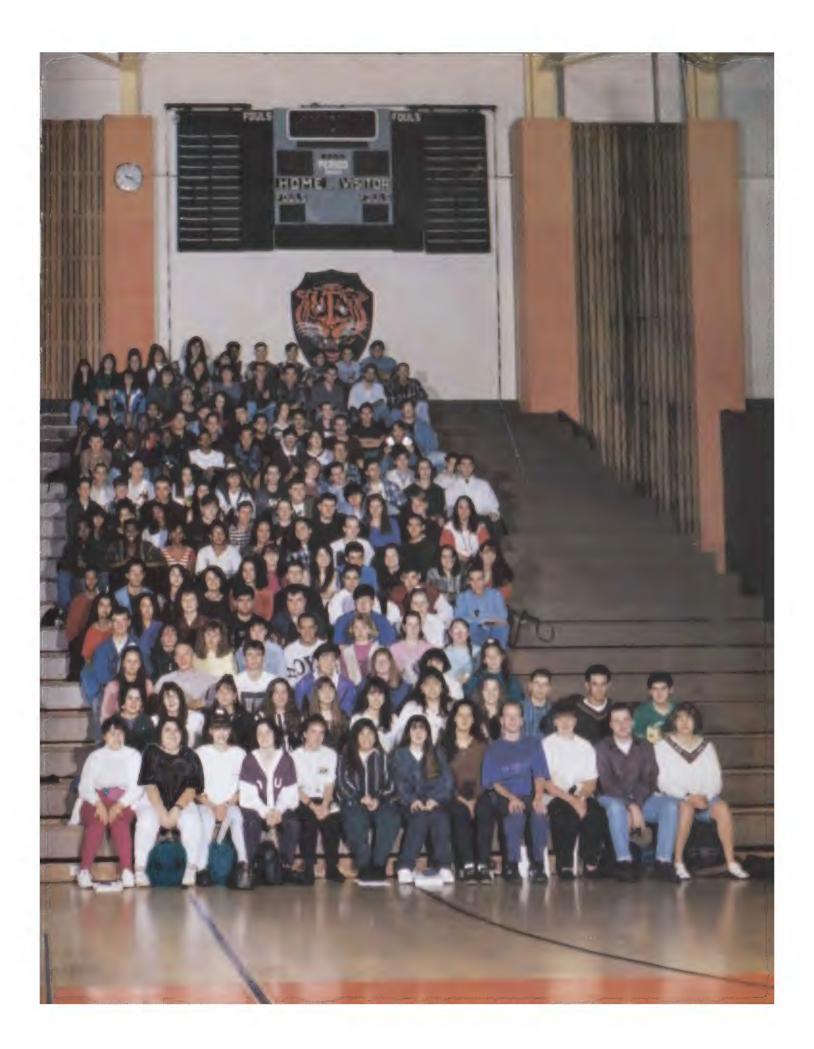

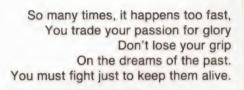

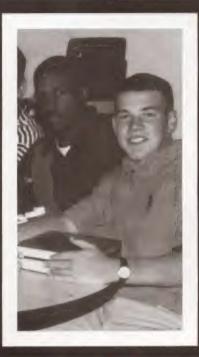

It's the eye of the tiger, It's the thrill of the flight Rising up to the challenge of our rival And the last known survivor stalks his prey in the night, And he's watching us all with the eye of the tiger.

Face to face, out in the heat, Hangin' tough, stayin' hungry, They stack the odds still we Take to the street, For the kill with the skill to survive.

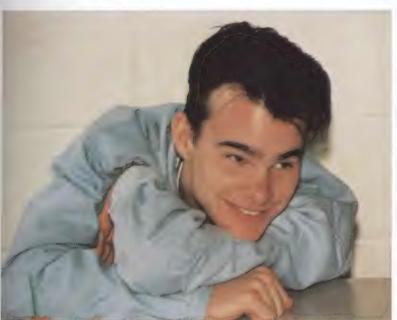

Risin' up, straight to the top Had the guts, got the glory Went the distance, now I'm not gonna stop, Just a man and his will to survive.

It's the eye of the tiger, It's the thrill of the flight Rising up to the challenge of our rival And the last known survivor stalks his prey in the night, And he's watching us all with the eye of the tiger.

Patrick F. Jackman

ASSISTANT HEADMASTER

Barbara L. Masterson

As members of the Class of 1994, you have much to celebrate You entered Taunton High School as young adolescents walking tentatively through these halls and searching for your niche in the school community. Through consistent effort and perseverance, you now find yourself in possession of a versignificant document — a high school diploma. I am certain the each of you has experienced struggle and sacrifice in order to reach this important goal. The faculty and staff remember those "nervous" freshmen fondly and rejoice in the achievements of the young adults leaving Taunton High School to assume their roles in our community. I cherish the memories you have contributed to my Taunton High School experience and wish your every success in your future endeavors.

No, I didn't know Abe Lincoln personally

I'll surrender, but not unconditionally

You can't handle the truth!

Watch out for that door!

First, you draw the bunny's ears

— "Give me your lunch money!"

— "Aww . . . not again!!"

But Captain, I've given you all the copies I've got!

Faster than a speeding bullet, stronger than a locomotive

99 days to go . . . 99 days to go!

Ecoutez et repetez!

Y'all talk funny

You talkin' to me? 'Cause if you are . . .

Too much equals salsa!

I'm giving you a warning this time, but if I catch you speeding again \ldots

Dr. Hanna: "What's up for the weekend?"
Mrs. Tripp: "He who kills time injures eternity."

Mr. Hill: "Get back in your cage you rat!"

Mr. Osowick: "Why don't you make like a tomato and ketchup."

Mr. Pimental: "You should be able to do this intuitively."

Mr. Ponte: "My daughters . . . what are you talking about? I don't have kids."

Mr. Walters: "A clean press is a happy press."

Mr. Dube: "You ought to be shot, hung, and wallpapered!!!"

Mrs. Gibbons: "Non, c'est ne pas tout!"

Ms. Benevides: "Oh my God!"

Mr. Salve: "Keep out of trouble."

Mr. McGovern: "What's going on here? Stop talking."

Mr. DeSousa: "O.K. kids, kids, take our your notes, kids, O.K. kids."

Mr. Ritchie: "I love ya, if you were twenty years older, I'd marry ya!"

Mrs. George: "Duh!"

Mrs. Nunes: "Do you agree?"

IN MEMORIAM

These pages are dedicated in memory of our beloved classmate, Eddy Pimental. Eddy, who was a member of the class of '94 passed away late in his sophomore year. For the short time he was with us, Eddy left us with many enjoyable memories of what a great person he really was. Eddy, who was pleasant and easy-going, was admired by many and always seemed to work his way onto a person's good side. He was very generous and would always try his best to please you and make you happy. In his short life, Eddy had many friends and never made an enemy. Eddy's tragic passing impacted and changed many lives to whom he was special. Today, all we have to cherish are wonderful memories that will live with us forever. Eddy, your family and friends all miss you and love you dearly.

WORDS OF WISDOM

Take it as it comes.

Never say a 4 letter word in Mrs. George's class.

If you don't speak loud your words won't be heard.

Make every night shine as bright as day.

Never bet money on any professional sports team from New England.

The world is filled with color and hate, but the mind shouldn't.

Don't believe anyone.

When you hear "Stop or I'll Shoot," STOP!!!

Never slide down a wooden railing.

Live, party, love, and laugh.

Get a license and a car.

If you want to be cool, try always to be yourself.

Prepare for Mr. McGovern.

Don't skip school cause you'll get hooked on it.

Always have a designated driver.

Always brown bag your lunch.

Don't use D-House bathrooms.

Never, ever wait until tomorrow.

Always remember, never cross connect jumper cables.

Don't let others make the decisions on who you are, do it yourself.

Make it better.

Do what your heart tells you, and not what everyone expects of you.

Don't let anyone change you.

Do what you want . . . in 100 years no one will know.

The most important thing in communication, is to hear what isn't being said.

Don't squeeze the Charmin.

THS is a great place as long as you have a good time being here.

Don't eat yellow snow.

Always go for your dreams and never let go.

No matter what you do have fun along the way.

Don't grow up too much.

Be yourself and stand your ground.

Wear your seatbelt and watch out for telephone poles.

Beauty is not only on the outside, it's also in the inside.

Don't listen to THEM.

Live life to the fullest, you never get a 2nd chance.

IN CLOSING

During the past four years, we have all grown into mature young adults that are well prepared for the world outside the walls of TAUNTON HIGH. May we take the kindness, wisdom, and knowledge imparted and apply it to our everyday lives.

May you be happy and successful in future endeavors. Good luck and best wishes.

Sincerely, The Editors
